ADDRESS.

The loyal people of the United States of all classes, without distinction as to race or color, feeling an admiration and gratitude for the patriotism, services, and noble character of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, late President of the United States, who fell a martyr to the cause of Liberty and Humanity, have for some time been desirous of expressing their appreciation of his noble services and sublime character in a manner worthy of the American name, and which would commemorate in the most fitting way the great charter of Emancipation and Liberty in our land. In order to make effectual such a desire, Congress passed a law, which was approved by the President, incorporating the "NATIONAL LINCOLN MONUMENT ASSOCIATION," whose duty it should be under a proper organization, with rules and regulations, to proceed to collect funds and make all necessary plans and arrangements to erect a suitable monument to that GREAT AND GOOD MAN, somewhere within the public grounds in the City of Washington.

Let the monument we propose to rear in the capital of this great and redeemed nation go up under the care of all our people, and by the contributions of all.

Let all who are happier, wiser, or more secure in person or property in consequence of the virtue and patriotism of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, contribute to his memory; let each give something to commemorate the devotion to Country and Liberty that inspired the great soul of our Martyred President, and caused him to live and act for his country and the noblest ends and highest good of humanity.

Let the citizen whose earnest co-operation at home gave strength to our cause; the soldier and sailor who fought on land and sea to uphold "the dear old flag" during our great conflict, now happily closed; the freedman whose chains have fallen in part through the instrumentality of the great and good man whose virtues we in this manner propose to commemorate—let each and all do themselves the honor to contribute something to this noble object, so that when the work shall be completed it shall be eminently national, and a source of pride and glory to our country and an honor to all our people. And, let the work be promptly done.
